Sir:-

I am enclosing herewith an application for Copyright Registration on the title heading of a motion picture pictorial weekly film, together with a New York draft for $1.00, in payment of your fee. This animated weekly is on the same order as the Pathe Weekly, and in this instance consists of the title heading, a description of which is herewith appended.

©C.M. 2352

This motion picture film represents the title portion of an animated pictorial weekly, and consists of a steam locomotive travelling head on at high speed, the locomotive starting from a great distance grows increasingly larger until the word "NEWS" appears above the pilot. The locomotive then dissolves into a number of letters of the alphabet spelling the word "NEWS", the letters being in disarranged formation. The letters forming the word "NEWS" then are arranged together with other illustrative matter into a reproduction of the title heading of the "ILLUSTRATED DAILY NEWS ANIMATED WEEKLY".

Kindly send Registration Certificate at your earliest convenience.
